- Self-Evaluation -

Evaluation helps you to see whether you have achieved your goals. It teaches you to learn from your experiences. Take some time to answer the self-evaluation questions thoroughly and sincerely to get the most out of this project experience.

What progress did you make towards the goals set at the beginning of the year?

What were your key successes or what did you find most interesting about your project?

What did you learn from this project?

Did you follow the outline set out at the beginning of the year? What changes did you make and why?

What do you think you could do better if you had the opportunity to go back over the year? Explain.

Did you develop new skills as a result of this project?

Did you share some of your knowledge and enthusiasm about your project with other people?

What do you feel you as an individual achieved through your self-determined project?

Would you like to continue learning about this and continue the project next year, or would you rather choose an entirely different project?
